MUD RUNNERS GET ANOTHER CHANCE AT PALMETTO PARK.

Granite Sets at Rest Doubt as to His Mud Running Ability by an Easy Victory-Losing

Day for Layers.

Charleston, S. C., April 10.—Wet weather con tributed towards a falling off in the attendance at Palmetto Park today, caused wholesale withdrawals and generally marred the sport. The betting was of only ordinary volume and nine layers handled the business. They again had an unprofitable day, as the winners were extensively backed. In the opener, they quoted Rosturtium at liberal odds and the sharps were not backward in taking advantage of it. The third race at three-quarters was the most pretentious offering in a racing way, and resulted in an easy victory for Granite's ability to run in muddy going was responsible for the liberal odd-laid against bim. He never left the result in doubt after the rise of the barrier, going into an easy lead at once and maintaining his advantage all the way.

Catesby Woodford's crack filly Christmas Star was pitted against some good youngsters in the opener, but it was generally held that she was best and accordingly she received attention in a betting way from the rank and file. She might have won but for Wilson's persistency in interfering with Ralph Lloyd, an early contender, which was keeping strides with Christmas Star. She drew out in the stretch, but fell an easy victim to Rosturtium's final rush. There is quite a deal of interest among the Kentucky delegation here as to how Rosturtium will acquit himself against the much-heralded Hawthorn.

the Kentucky delegation here as to how Rosturtium will acquit himself against the much-heralded Hawthorn.

Rough riding on the part of C. Peak cost Merrick the purse in the fifth race. Peak was astride the Milam racer and he was chiefly engaged in the stretch drive in impeding Parkylew. So intent was he on forcing Parkylew wide near the end that he did not observe Rey slip up along the inner rail and take—the purse. Peak's tactics also enabled Sleeth to get up for third money.

Catesby Woodford's Country Boy, after numerous failures, finally managed to graduate from the maiden class when he landed the purse in the second race, in which Cliff Top was again a disappointment. James Griffin took his first purse of the meeting when Pierre Dumas finished first in the fourth race. The closing dash went to Jacobite, well backed.

Jockey J. Hanover decided to adjust his differences with H. G. Bedwell and began riding in the colors of his new employer this afternoon, Eugene Lutz is still contending for his services and will probably seek to have the Bedwell contract annulled.

The following were among the best work-outs this morning:

Of the manner, incidents and accidents of the world's most famous steeplechase, London Sporting Life of March :30, said:

"The twenty-four runners were at the post nearly five minutes before time, walking round in circles. When the signal was given they went away on their journey at a steadier pace than usual, Rathmally taking a line for himself on the extreme right, being followed by Caubeen, Ballyhackle and Axle Pin. the latter, on the left, heading Bloodstone, Fetlar's Pride, Carsey, Sir Halbert, Jenkinstown, Jerry M., Mount Prospect's Fortune, Regent, Covert-coat and Rory O'Moore, with Glenfinder bringing on the rear.

Pin. the latter, on the left, heading phosizione, Fetial's Pride, Carsey, Sir Halbert, Jenkinstown, Jerry M., Mount Prospect's Fortune, Regent, Covertcoat and Rory O'Moore, with Glenfinder bringing up the rear.

"All got safely over the first two obstacles, but at the third Rathnally took off too soon and came down on landing, leaving Caubeen with the lead of Baliyhackle, Jerry M., Bloodstone and Axle Pin. well up with these being Carsey, Sir Halbert and Jenkinstown, Glenside got rid of his jockey at the third fence, while the tailed-off Glenfinder was also ruled out, as was Gold Seal II., which refused at the next obstacle, where Covertcoat and Rory O'Moore both fell.

"Caubeen at the Canal turn, was then joined by Bloodstone, the pair being closely followed by Ballyhackle, Jerry M. and Axle Pin, Sir Halbert being close up next. Rory O'Moore, going on loose, brought down Bridge IV., and Fetlar's Pride jumped on to a fallen horse at the Canal point. No further grief took place till the first fence on the race course was reached, where Foolhardy toppled over. At the water, Caubeen, Bloodstone and Ballyhackle were almost abreast, close at their heels being Regent, Jerry M. (going well), Axle Pin and Carsey; then came Sir Halbert, Jenkinstown, Mount Prospect's Fortune, Precentor II., Whitelegs II. and Kilkeel, these being the only others now standing, Whitelegs II. had almost unseated his jockey at the fence before the water, and at the first obstacle in the country he succeeded in quite doing so, while at the next ditch Precentor II. fell, and Jenkinstown, which was palpably tiring, and jumping sideways to the right, landed so badly that he had to be pulled up.

"Bloodstone then dashed into the lead, having Caubeen, Ballyhackle and Regent as his nearest attendants. The last-named had moved up in front at Becher's, when he fell, which left Ballyhackle in front of Mount Prospect's Fortune.

"The tailed-off Kilkeel fell at Valentine's Brook, "The tailed-off Kilkeel fell at Valentine's Brook, "The tailed-off Kilkeel

In riding the winners of the entire card of six races at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., June 5, 1907, James Lee, the colored jockey under contract to J. B. Respess, of Cincinnati, Ohio, established a world's record.

The chronicles of racing in America and England show that only four other jockeys ever rode as many as six winners in one day and, oddly enough, on each occasion the card embraced more than six races. George Fordham, the celebrated English jockey, who scored his first win on Hampton in 1851, and his last on Bragg in 1853, was, on the authority of London Sporting Life, the first to ride six winners in one day. It was at the Bibury Club meeting at Stockbridge prior to 1873. There were seven races on the card. Fordham rode in all of them. In one, however, there was a dead heat, and his mount was defeated in the run-off. Fordham died October 12, 1887.

Fred Archer, the most successful jockey in English turf history, who scored his first triumph on Athol Daisy in 1870 and his last on Blanchland at Newmarket, Friday, October 29, 1886, was the second to ride six winners in one day. He did it at Lewes, August 5, 1882. There were seven races on the card, but he had no mount in the last one. Fred Archer committed suicide November 8, 1886. During his career he rode 2,748 winners.

The next jockey to accomplish the feat was "Monk" Overton, a skillful colored rider, who had his leydey in the latter eighties and early mineties. Overton rode six winners at Washington Park, July 10, 1891. There were seven races on the eard. He won the first, had no mount in the second, and took the last dive, including the Maiden Stakes, which was won by Eastin & Larable's Poet Scout.

The only other jockey who has achieved similar distinction is C. Turner, who rode six winners at Charleston, S. C., on Tuesday last. The card on this occasion was made up of seven races, in all of which Turner had mounts. He finished umplaced in the sixth race.

Eleven other jockeys have the distinction of having won the full card, but in each in

In response to Daily Racing Form's request for the records of the principal feats in jockeyship in England, the editor of London Sporting Life sent the following:

George Fordham rode six winners in one day at the Bibury Club meeting at Stockbridge. In another race that day be rode a dead heat, but his mount was beaten in the run-off.

Fred Archer rode six successive winners at Lewes, August 5, 1882; five winners at Chester, 1883; four, including one walkover, in succession at Manchester, May 16, 1882; five in succession and two losers at Windsor, May 24, 1884; four in succession and two losers at Manchester, June 3, 1884; six in succession, including a dead heat and a walkover, at Bibury Club (Stockbridge) in 1884.

S. Chandley rode five winners in succession, all of his mounts, at the Pontefract (Yorkshire) Summer Meeting, July 6, 1893.

J. Tod Sloan, the American jockey, rode five winners in succession at Newmarket, September 30, 1898. There were seven races that day. He was beaten in the first and seventh. Of the five winners he rode, three were bred by P. Lorillard and ran in the colors of Lord W. Beresford,

C. Trigg rode five of the six winners at Edinburgh, October 3, 1902, and five out of six winners at Worcester, October 25, 1906. In both instances his winners were successive.

T. Loates won with all his five mounts at Windsor, May 2, 1896, and his brother, S. Loates, finished second to him in four of these races.

TRAINER PATTERSON SCORES A DOUBLE FOR CANADIAN TURFMAN.

Toronto Establishment Has Won All the Two-yearold Races of the Meeting to Date-Day of Ideal Conditions.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—Robert Davies, the Toronto turfman who sent a strong stable across the border from Canada last fall, is cutting an important figure in the racing here. The Davies' stable, which has furnished the winners of all the two-year-old races so far run during the meeting, this afternoon scored a double.

The racing conditions could not well have been improved on and a large crowd was present to witness the sport. Form was well observed, the afternoon's results showing four winning favorites. Liberty Hall, the Marta Santa two-year-old that was rated one of the best of his age shown at Charleston, easily disposed of the opposition he met in the first race, a dash of half a mile. He was ridden by Foden, an unfashionable and inferior jockey, but he won because he was easily best. When the start came Liberty Hall propped and was all but left. When he got to running, however, he showed a fine flight of speed, going through on the inside with a rush and before the stretch turn was reached in had overtaken and passed the pacemaker, Captain Elliott, winning with a bit to spare at 'the end by a length. Captain Elliott, a compact built gelding by Hermis, showed a good turn of speed. He set a fast pace and considering that it was his maiduater of fact there were some who were of the opinion that he might have beaten the winner had he not pone so wide in entering that it was his maiduater of fact there were some who were of the opinion that he might have beaten the winner had he not rounling of the afternoon came with the running of the afth race, which went to Jeanmette B. The closest finish of the afternoon came with the running of the afth race, which went to Jeanmette B. The latter made a runnaway affair of the race, outbreaking and outruning her opposition for five of the start was a start of the running of the proper start of the captain the five lengths.

TRAINING NEWS FROM LOUISVILLE.

George J. Long's Derby Candidates Doing Well-Many Horses Coming from Charleston

Louisville, Ky., April 10.—George J. Long's Derby candidates, Nicias and Free Lance, did today's fastest work at Churchill Downs. They went three-quarters in 1:18%, going the first quarter in :26 and the half in :52%. Both apparently could have run much faster had they been urged. At Douglas Par, The Manager went three-quarters in 1:22, cantering. This was in preparation for a trial at that course tomorrow morning. The Manager is in grand condition.

The best work by two-year-olds at either track was a quarter in :23% by George J. Long's Sempronious—Altuda filly. Other good trials were:

Crowsfoot—Half mile in 58, cantering.

Froglegs—Quarter mile in 24%, handily. High Private—Three-eighths in 40, cantering. Inquieta—One-eighth in 14.

L. P. Doerhoefer's stable, trained by Shelby West, which came from Charleston, comprises the older racers Mary Davis, Ursula Emma, Tommie Thompson, Jack Ellis, Gold of Ophir and Tillie's Nightmare, and the following two-year-olds: George Karme, Bandacob, by Ort Wells—Katie Havlin, Jimmie Gill, Ursula Thompson, Madeline and Irish Mike. The latter is a chestnut son of Ort Wells. Mr. Doerhoefer has decided to mate his noted mare Melisande, which broke down last fall at Latonia, with O. A. Bianchi's well-bred horse Jim Gaffney. Mr. Bianchi received a letter today from California which stated that four colts had been foaled there sired by this horse and out of mares owned by him. All are thriving save the colt out of Lavena C., which was killed when his dam accidentally rolled upon him.

stred by this borse and out of mares owned by him. All are thriving save the colt out of Lavena C., which was killed when his dam accidentally rolled upon him.

C. F. Berryman, manager of J. B. Haggin's famous Elmendorf Farm, accompanied by John F. Payne, another prominent Kentucky turfman, visited T. C. McDowell at Douglas Park today to take a look at The Manager and observe his preparation for his Derby engagement. Mr. Berryman says there are still a hundred mares at Elmendorf Farm, but these will be reduced to some fifty head. Such mares as Hamburg Belle and Tradition will be among those retained. There are but ten stallions now on the place, the most prominent of which are Star Ruby. Watercress. Waterboy, Africander and Royal Flush III. Mr. Haggin has fifty-six yearlings this season and all these will be shipped to England to be sold. John Walters, the Canadian trainer, has a rare hand of two-year-olds in his barn at Douglas Park. They consist of a brother to Bourbon Beau, a colt by The Commoner, out of the dam of Commoner's Touch and Notasulga, a chestnut colt by The Commoner—Bessie McCarthy, a black colt by Lord Esterling—Flora Handsome, a bay colt by Lord Esterling—

The only stables at Douglas Park which will send any horses to Lexington this spring are those of T. C. McDowell and T. P. Hayes. Both these turfmen will send quite a string of horses to race at the Kentucky Association track.

CONNAUGHT CUP FOR BLUE BONNETS.

Governor-General of Canada Presents Trophy to the Montreal Jockey Club.

Montreal, Que., April 10.—A pleasing announcement is made by the management of the Montreal Jockey Club. This comes through the offer of their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, to present a cup to be raced for at the meetings of the Montreal Jockey Club at Blue Bonnets. His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, has always taken a keen interest in the thoroughbred and will follow the example of his predecessors during his term of office as governor-general of Canada by encouraging the breeding of the thoroughbred in the Dominion. With this object in view, their royal highnesses have made this gift a perpetual challenge cup, the winning of which from season to season will result in many a test of speed and stamina that will be well worth the witnessing.

from season to season will result in many a test of speed and stamina that will be well worth the witnessing.

Because of the high office of field marshall which his royal highness holds in the British army, he is setting a good example by thus encouraging the importation and breeding of the thoroughbred, which means the fostering of a great industry and the establishment of Canada as a field for the furnishing of remounts for the English army.

The improvement in the quality of thoroughbreds in Canada has been marked in recent years, and perhaps more so in the Province of Quebec than in any part of Canada. Each season sees a superior lot striving for honors in the numerous stakes raced for over the various tracks under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Racing Associations.

Last season saw the purchase locally of several horses which are eligible for the Connaught Cup that is to have its first running this spring. It is sure to attract a large entry list.

To the Connaught Cup, the Montreal Jockey Club will add $1,000, of which $200 will go to the second horse and $100 to the third. This, with the addition of the cunaught cup will make five stakes for the spring meeting this year, four of which are to be run at Blue Bonnets this spring. The addition of the Connaught Cup will make five stakes for the spring meeting this year, four of which are to be run on the flat. The other is the Prince of Wales Steeplechase through the field.

The management of the Montreal Jockey Club has announced April 20 as the date for the closing of the spring dates. There will be no purse of less value than $300 this spring, which is an increase over last year and should prove an inducement to horsenen to make the trip to Blue Bonnets. The following are the stakes to be run during the spring meeting:

The Connaught Cup—A challenge cup presented by their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess.

THE RUNNING OF THE LINCOLNSHIRE.

The English flat racing campaign of 1912 began at Lincoln Monday, March 25, under adverse circumstances. Owing to the great strike of coal miners and resultant scarcity of fuel, the railroads did not furnish the usual excursion trains from London and inadequate means of transportation had the effect of cutting down the attendance to less than half the customary figures, but the racing program was pluckily carried out and the sport itself was of high class. The principal feature, the Lincolnshire Handicap at a mile, was run Tuesday afternoon, and proved easy for Sol Joel's Long Set, he winning about as easily as he did the Cambridgeshire Handicap last fall. Sporting Life's description of the race was as follows:

"Hornet's Beauty was the first saddled, and, being excused the preliminaries, was led to the post, the others parading in the order of the card. Coming under Mr. A. Coventry's charge well to time. Warfare, Cinderello, and Shanballymore displayed some anxiety to be off, but, taking everything into consideration, they were a fairly well-behaved lot. Thirteen minutes after the advertised time of the race the tapes were released to a perfect start, all being in one unbroken line. True, Great Surprise, with his electric turn of speed, was the quickest into his stride, but well held together, Spiked on the extreme right, and Cigar at his heels, stretched the latter, almost in the center, going very well, then after a slight interval came Warfare, Mer-cutio, Long Sets and Hornet's Beauty, the latter with a berth to himself, wide on the left, while Toiler and Sobieski were about the most conspicuous of the remainder, who were all well bunched, excepting Moscato who was outpaced.

"Leaving the junction of the courses, Spiked collapsed rapidly, and Cigar was left four lengths in front of Great Surprise and Uncle Pat, with Long Set striding out strongly, clear of Warfare and Mercutio, the latter now falling back somewhat, in company with Sobieski, while Moscato was still the whipperin. Cigar retired almost as rapidly as did Spiked, while at the end of six furlongs Great Surprise showed signs of distress.

"Uncle Pat, who had always been lying well up with the leaders, then came on, hotly pursued by Long Set, the pair at the commencement of the last two furlongs being well out from Warfare, who was racing with his head in the air. Uncle Pat held his rival for a few strides, but Long Set soon came striding away, and although shown the whirwith the leaders of the length separated second and third.

"Moscato (three-parts of a length away) was fourth, Sobieski (a length further off) fifth, Mercutio (not ridden clean out) sixth, Hornet's Beauty (cased) seventh, Hayden eighth, Spiked (led for half a mile) ninth. Shamballymore tenth, Ben Alder eleventh. Fairy Maid twelfth, Toiler (ran fairly well) thirteenth, Great Surprise (up with the leaders for six furlongs) fourteenth, My Collar (never prominent) fifteenth, Cigar (unreliable) sixteenth, and Cinderello last. Time, 1:44%.

"Long Set, like Ypsilanti, Dean Swift, Victor Wild and other good handicap horses before him, started his career, as far as racing in England is concerned, as a selling plater. It was on the scene of his yesterday's brilliant victory that a selling race coup was engineered with him. Then Henry Bathe, his trainer, purchased him on behalf of his present owner.

"Hornet's Beauty and Mercutio, numbered one and two on the card for the Lincolnshire Handicap, drew the same number at the draw for soluder,

BALTIMORE COMMISSION TO MEET.

Baltimore, Md., April 10.—The Baltimore County Racing Commission, consisting of Messrs. Redmond C. Stewart, Spalding L. Jenkins and Frederick Von Kapff, which now has jurisdiction over local racing affairs, will meet to organize this week, at which time the commission will approve the application of the Maryland Jockey Club to hold its regular spring meeting at Pimlico from April 27 to May 15, inclusive. As a matter of courtesy to the commission, the Jockey Club will not ratify the dates until after the commission has met and approved the application.

Governor Goldsborough's appointment of the three gentlemen mentioned above to control the sport in Baltimore County has met with the universal approval of horsemen and public alike. Messrs. Stewart, Jenkins and Von Kapff are three of the best known gentlemen riders in the south. They are members of the Eldridge and also the Green Spring Valley Hunt Clubs, and have frequently ridden in steeplechase races at limiteo. That the sport will be well taken care of by them in this locality is the consensus of opinion among sportsmen.

Governor Goldsborough will likewise veto the Bellis bill which passed both branches of the Legislature. The Bellis bill has been the cause of widespread interest throughout the state because if it became a law racing would be allowed in Anne Arundel County, in which is located the Laurel race track, during eight months of the year—that is, from April to December. There is a state law which allows racing in Anne Arundel County during the month of October, and in case Governor Goldsboroug refuses to sign the Bellis bill, Laurel will have to be content with a fall meeting only.
